

Dual Major Course List (Political Science Department)

Political Theory Division

Course Title	Semester	Credits	Notes
Political Science (I)	Fall	3
Political Science (II)	Spring	3
Introduction to International Relations (I)	Fall	2
Introduction to International Relations (II)	Spring	2
Public Administration (I)	Fall	2
Public Administration (II)	Spring	2
The Constitution & Government of the Republic of China (I)	Fall	2
The Constitution & Government of the Republic of China (II)	Spring	2
Comparative Government and Politics (I)	Fall	2	Expected to be offered in AY 2025; can be substituted with "Comparative Government I & II"
Comparative Government and Politics (II)	Spring	2

Social Statistics	Full year	4
Social Science Research Methods	Spring	2
The Political Economy of Development in Taiwan	Spring	2	Expected to be offered in AY 2026; can be substituted with "Taiwan Area Political and Economic Development"
Western Political Philosophy (I)	Fall	2
Western Political Philosophy (II)	Spring	2
Chinese Political Philosophy (I)	Fall	2
Chinese Political Philosophy (II)	Spring	2
Chinese Politics / The Political Economy of People's Republic of China (choose one)	Full year	2
Modern Political Thought (I) / Theories Of Comparative Politics (I) (Choose one)	Full year	2
Required Elective: Choose 2 of 6: Introduction to History, Introduction to Anthropology, Introductory Sociology, General Psychology, Elementary Logic, Economics		6	"Economics" can be fulfilled by taking "Economics B I" and "Economics B II" in this department, or "Principles of Economics," "Microeconomics," "Macroeconomics," "Microeconomics," and "Macroeconomics" courses offered by the Department of Economics, or equivalent economics courses from other departments of equal or higher credit value. Year-long courses may count for one semester's credit.

- Required Courses: 42 credits
- Electives (Choose 2 of 6 required): 6 credits

- Additional Elective Courses: 10 credits from Political Science Department courses (course codes starting with "PS"; course identifier starting with 302 or 322).
- Total: 58 credits

International Relations Division

Course Title	Semester	Credits	Notes
Political Science (I)	Fall	3
Political Science (II)	Spring	3
Introduction to International Relations (I)	Fall	2
Introduction to International Relations (II)	Spring	2
Public Administration (I)	Fall	2
Public Administration (II)	Spring	2
The Constitution & Government of the Republic of China (I)	Fall	2
The Constitution & Government of the Republic of China (II)	Spring	2
Comparative Government and Politics (I)	Fall	2	Expected to be offered in AY 2025; can be substituted with "Comparative Government I & II"
Comparative Government and Politics (II)	Spring	2
Social Statistics	Full year	4
History of International Relations (I)	Fall	2
History of International Relations (II)	Spring	2
Foreign Relations of the R.O.C	Spring	2
International Law (I)	Fall	2
International Law (II)	Spring	2

The Decision Making and Analysis of Foreign Policy	Spring	2
Introduction to Western Political Philosophy Introduction to Chinese Political Philosophy(Choose one)	Full year	2
International Organizations	Spring	2
Chinese Politics / Political Economy of Peoples Republic of China (Choose one)	Full year	2

Required Electives: Choose 2 of 6 courses (4 credits total):

- Economics (b)(I), Economics (b)(II), Issues in International Economics and Trade, International Political Economy, Political Economy, Seminar on Political Economy of East Asia

Additional Required Language Elective: Choose 1 of 12 languages (6 credits total):

- Japanese (I), Korean (I), Thai (I), Malay (I), Vietnamese (I), French (I), German (I), Spanish (I), Russian (I), Latin (I), Dutch (I), Polish (I) Note: Both semesters must be in the same language.
- Required Courses: 44 credits
- Electives (Choose 2 of 6 required): 4 credits
- Second Foreign Language (Choose 1 of 12): 6 credits
- Additional Elective Courses: 10 credits from Political Science Department courses (course codes starting with "PS"; course identifier starting with 302 or 322).
- Total: 64 credits

Public Administration Division

Course Title	Semester	Credits	Notes
Political Science (I)	Fall	3
Political Science (II)	Spring	3
Introduction to International Relations (I)	Fall	2
Introduction to International Relations (II)	Spring	2
Public Administration (I)	Fall	2
Public Administration (II)	Spring	2

The Constitution & Government of the Republic of China (I)	Fall	2
The Constitution & Government of the Republic of China (II)	Spring	2
Comparative Government and Politics (I)	Fall	2	Expected to be offered in AY 2025; can be substituted with "Comparative Government I"
Social Statistics	Full year	4
Economics (B) (I)	Fall	2
Economics (B) (II)	Spring	2
Research Methods of Social Science	Spring	2
Public Policy (I)	Fall	2
Public Policy (II)	Spring	2
Administrative Law (I)	Fall	2
Administrative Law (II)	Spring	2
Chinese Politics / Political Economy of Peoples Republic of China(Choose one)	Full year	2

Required Electives: Choose 4 of 11 courses (8 credits total):

- Local Government and Management, Human Resource Management in the Public Sector, Fiscal Management, Public Management, Non-Profit Organization Management, Digital Government for Public Management, Public Opinion Survey, Cost-Benefit Analysis, Applied Regression Analysis, Seminar on Program Evaluation, Seminar on Communication Policy and Media Law
- Required Courses: 40 credits
- Electives (Choose 4 of 11 required): 8 credits
- Additional Elective Courses: 10 credits from Political Science Department courses (course codes starting with "PS"; course identifier starting with 302 or 322).
- Total: 58 credits