

Establishment and Selection Procedures for the Outstanding Teaching Faculty Member Selection Committee of the Department of Political Science, National Taiwan University

Passed on March 22, 1999, at the 1st Departmental Affairs Meeting of the 2nd Semester, Academic Year 1999

Amended on May 27, 2025, at the 4th Departmental Affairs Meeting of the 2nd Semester, Academic Year 2024

- Article 1 These regulations are enacted in accordance with Article 6 of the “Implementation Guidelines for Student Survey on the Selection of Outstanding Teaching Faculty at National Taiwan University.” Matters not covered herein shall be handled in accordance with relevant regulations of the University and the College.
- Article 2 The Department of Political Science’s Committee for Outstanding Teaching Faculty (hereinafter referred to as “the Committee”) shall be composed of the following ex officio and appointed members. The Department Chair shall serve as the convener and preside over all meetings.
1. Ex officio member: The Department Chair.
 2. Nominated members: The Chair shall appoint five full-time faculty members of the Department as committee members, along with three alternate members.
- The term of the ex officio member shall be concurrent with their term of office. Appointed members shall serve a one-year term and may be reappointed.
- If a committee member is among the top scorers in the student evaluation survey, they shall recuse themselves from the review or discussion of any matters involving a conflict of interest. In such cases, an alternate member shall attend the meeting in their place.
- Article 3 The Committee shall refer to statistical results from student evaluation surveys and other teaching-related data to recommend candidates to the College in accordance with University and College regulations. If a sufficient number of candidates cannot be determined by the aforementioned method, the Committee may refer to the average teaching evaluation scores from the previous two semesters to finalize the recommendation list.
- Article 4 Committee meetings shall only be convened with the attendance of at least two-thirds of all members. Resolutions shall not be adopted without the approval of more than half of the attending members.
- Article 5 These regulations shall be implemented upon approval by the Departmental Affairs Meeting. The same procedure shall apply to any amendments.
